BOMBS DROPPED IN LONDON SUBURBS Incensed At Rumania, Russia Threatens

Today's War Moves

By J. W. T. MASON
British United Press, War Expert
Exclusive to Edmonton Bulletin

RUMANIAN surrender to Hungarian territorial demands, under Italian-German pressure, brings Hitler and Mussolini nearer to a clash with Russia over irreconcilable vital interests. Stalin is renewing today his threatening attitude toward Rumania and his Black Sea fleet is becoming active as a gesture of disquietude over extension of German and Italian influences in the Balkans.

It was Stalin who started the Danubian tension by selling Bessarabia and Bukovina. He is not so short-sighted as to have believed Nazi and Fascist diplomacy would allow him to see a permanent position in southeastern Europe without a struggle. To the present the response of the Russian dictators has been the peaceful severance of Rumanian territory for the benefit of Bulgaria and Hungary.

This shrewd manoeuvre brings Bulgaria and Hungary within the circle of German and Italian diplomatic control not through fear but by community of material interests. Bulgaria and Hungary can hold what they had been allowed to grab only through Hitler and Mussolini's good will.

STALIN CHECKED
If Russia allows this situation to continue, Stalin must confess himself defeated in the struggle for Balkan control, which met recently in Moscow that Russia's influence in southeastern Europe must not be jeopardized.

However, the Slav is checked. The first open intimation that the check is back to Hitler and power is contained in Rumania's announcement that Germany and

German Raiders Fail To Reach Centre Of City

Efforts To Pierce Capital's Defences In Three Thrusts Costs Enemy 25 War Planes

LONDON, Aug. 30.—Forty-two German planes were brought down over Great Britain today and 10 British planes were lost, the ministry of information announced tonight. Four of the British pilots escaped, the announcement said. The figures were on air fighting over Britain—in which the Germans three times tried to break through the aerial defences of London—up to 7:30 p.m. (11:30 a.m., M.S.T.).

By PAT USSHER
Canadian Press Staff Writer

LONDON, Aug. 30.—London's third air raid warning of the day sounded late this afternoon as waves of Nazi aircraft roared over southeast England—the United Kingdom's air front line—in a series of thrusts at the Metropolitan area.

Fighters engaged hostile planes over the London area in the third raid. Dogfights developed and bombs were dropped. The sound of enemy machines and the faint thud of bombs were audible in the centre of the capital.

Unofficial reports said six bombers were brought down in the third raid alone, apparently while attempting to locate and bomb a factory.

Total Of German Losses Is 25

In earlier tries to break through London's defences, the Germans lost 19 bombers. Thus, the total cost of today's smash at the capital was, unofficially, at least 25.

A formation of 20 bombers flying at great height was broken up by a swarm of British fighters during the hour-long raid. One was sent spinning to earth with smoke pouring from its tail and two others were forced from the formation and flew from sight with fighters following close behind.

The Luftwaffe's bombers unloaded their bombs in earlier attacks aimed at airfields in the vicinity of the Metropolitan and the home counties. The sky battles were fought at tremendous heights both morning and afternoon over various parts of the southeastern front line.

Enemy Chased Off By R.A.F.

The thud of bombs was heard in suburban sections during the first raid. The second, lasting less than 20 minutes, sounded when the raiders again approached the capital. Fighters intercepted and chased them off.

Streets of the suburbs were crowded with shoppers when the bombs were dropped. Men and women who had gone out after the second warning ended had to take shelter again.

Reports from a southeast town said that while London's second warning was in progress 12 high explosive bombs and a few incendiaries were dropped in outlying districts and several persons were injured and one man died of shock. Some houses were badly damaged.

The gunfire over one suburban area was described as "ferocious" by some eye-witnesses as one German bomber was shot down over the London area with two British fighters in hot pursuit.

FOUR DOWNED

Official reports said that at least four enemy planes had been brought down over the London area today.

The first clear signal sounded over the London area at 5:44 p.m. (9:15 a.m., M.S.T.).

Before the alarm was sounded British fighters had turned back wave upon wave of bombers—probably 400 in all—striking directly at London.

During the raid 20 German bombers flew at great height over one district in the London area only to run into a swarm of British fighters which split up the formation and forced the Germans to individual fights.

Repeatedly the raiders turned against the capital's outlying defences only to meet with firm resistance from British fighters and incoming anti-aircraft guns.

The German attackers, who lost at least 19 planes in their first attempt to reach the London area, shifted their route for the second try.

The day's second alarm sounded about 3:30 p.m. (7:30 a.m., M.S.T.) but the all clear signal came six minutes later.

An hour before the afternoon alarm sounded air battles were reported over southeastern England.

THINK SPIES MAY SIGNAL NAZI PLANES

LONDON, Aug. 30.—British police have started a new drive against suspected Fifth Column activity during last night's air raids.

On recent nights, there have been reports that German bombers were seen by Fifth Columnists to guide German bombers to their objectives.

In the London area, police observed flashes of lights from a large block of apartments. They raided the apartments and took a man in custody for questioning.

Scotland Yard daily has received scores of calls from persons reporting what they believed to be signal lights. In most cases, these flashes of light proved to be accidental.

Those Wishing To Join Navy Advised To Take Militia Training

By R. E. RICHARDSON
Edmonton Bulletin Bureau

OTTAWA, Aug. 30.—Hon. Angus Macdonald, naval defence minister, will fly to Vancouver next Tuesday night for one public appearance and return immediately to Ottawa.

At a press conference today, Mr. Macdonald said he planned to visit the coast of British Columbia to inspect the naval defence forces of the province.

He said that the naval defence forces of the province were in excellent condition and that the militia training was being carried out in a most satisfactory manner.

Mr. Macdonald said that he was pleased to see that the naval defence forces of the province were in such good condition and that the militia training was being carried out in a most satisfactory manner.

Soviet Presents Harsh Notes To Balkan Kingdoms

Significant Manoeuvres In Black Sea and Western District Intended To Display Might Of Russia Against Rumania

By HENRY SHAPIRO
British United Press, Exclusive Cable to The Edmonton Bulletin.

MOSCOW, Aug. 30.—Russia's Red fleet manoeuvred in the Black sea and Red army troops held tactical manoeuvres in the western special district today as the Moscow government demanded an early and satisfactory answer to Russian protests against alleged Rumanian army provocations.

The official Soviet News Agency said that Russia would hold Rumania responsible for consequences of alleged Rumanian army provocations on the Bessarabian frontier and it was said that the situation would take a "grave turn" if there were Russian casualties.

In addition to the Black sea fleet manoeuvres the Russian navy also was conducting tactical submarine exercises in the Pacific—apparently off the Siberian maritime provinces. Airplanes participated in all operations.

Reports said that planes photographed and bombed "enemy vessels" in the Black sea and it was said that a scouting submarine "penetrated a hostile naval base."

In the Pacific, reports carrying planes "destroyed a screen of enemy ships."

The army's tactical manoeuvres in the western special military district, fronting roughly on Poland, were watched closely by Defense Commissar Semion Timoshenko and Gen. Karel Meretsky, chief of the army staff.

Violation Of Frontier Not To Be Tolerated

MOSCOW, Aug. 30.—Soviet News Agency disclosed that Soviet Russia has accused Rumania of continued violation of her frontier and said repetitions of these provocative acts could not be tolerated.

Defense Commissar for Foreign Affairs, Dmitriy Pavlov, said today to the Rumanian minister, Grigore Gafencu, the agency said, one of them is a Rumanian agent alleged frontier violations by Soviet troops and aircraft.

Blame Rumanians

The first note delivered Aug. 19 accused Rumanian troops and aircraft of violating Soviet borders and of attacking Soviet border guards and drawn the latter's fire. Rumania issued a statement six days later, the agency said, charging Soviet aircraft had violated Rumanian territory.

Demands for action

The second note yesterday protesting frontier actions as part of Rumanian troops and aircraft, adding "it is true the Soviet side has added to frontier incidents, but should casualties occur the matter will take a grave turn."

The Soviet government placed the blame for the frontier incidents on the Rumanian side, saying it had made no mistake.

Mystery Plane Unveiled In U.S.

Lockheed Aircraft Corp. at Burbank, Calif. brings out what is called the world's fastest military airplane, for inspection by William S. Knudsen, chairman of the U.S. national defense advisory commission, and Maj.-Gen. Henry H. Arnold, air corps chief. The two-engine, interceptive pursuit, ship carrier, a six-pound rapid fire cannon and five machine-guns, is said to have a speed of 500 miles an hour, climbing 4,000 feet a minute.

Destruction By Nazi Bomber

Three times massed German raiders headed menacingly for London. Three times British anti-aircraft and defence planes turned them back. Then came a lone raider, a solo Nazi bomber. The incendiary bombs he dropped in London's heart started several fires of which this is one. London firemen were quickly on the job.

Nazi Target In London's First Night Bombing

Came the dawn after London's first night bombing of the war, and this was all that remained of a movie theatre on the city's outskirts. Building was reduced to shambles by time bomb which exploded some hours after Britain's defense anti-aircraft guns, aided by powerful searchlights, drove off at 4 a.m. "fairly large" numbers of Nazi bombers after their 45-minute raid.

The flag doesn't mean the end of the race for a long shot. For this member of an R.A.F. ground crew is only finishing a new speed (Hawker) Hurricane fighter plane returning from actual combat with German, for long enough to refuel, reload, and race back into the air to continue the battle.

American Civilians In England Get Training

Under a Nazi invasion of England, U.S. citizens living in London will have to "take it" along with the British. But they are determined to protect their lives and property. A large number have formed an American defense unit in London under the leadership of Brig.-Gen. Wade Hampton Rouse, former head of the 107th Infantry, N.Y.G. Above, Americans are seen receiving instruction from British soldiers at an army rifle range near London.

Great War Flying Days Are Recalled

Taking a few hours off from duty, Capt. H. H. Balfour, British Under-Secretary for Air, flew to Montreal from Ottawa to visit Flight Lieut. J. H. Norton, M.C., D.F.C., staff officer of No. 3 Training Commission, and Geoffrey Dock, airline insurance broker, with whom he served in the Royal Flying Corps during the first Great War. He was accompanied by Capt. W. K. Wakefield, M.P., his parliamentary secretary. The photograph, taken in front of the United Services Club, Montreal, shows from left to right Captain Wakefield, Flight Lieutenant Norton, Captain Balfour and Mr. Dock. A few minutes after this picture was taken Captain Balfour and Captain Wakefield entered a plane at St. Hubert to fly to New York.

2 PRISONERS ESCAPE FROM CALGARY JAIL

Soldier Captures One—
Other Eludes Widespread
Police Hunt

CALGARY, Aug. 20.—Using a back saw blade one of them had hidden in the collar of his wind-breaker, two prisoners escaped from Calgary city police cells in police headquarters, 7th Ave. E. last night. One was captured immediately after by a soldier who saw him leap over the stone balcony around the front steps of the station, but the other is still at large and hunted by augmented police forces.

NAILED MARTIN

Martin and Stelling had occupied the same cell. Police said Martin had admitted engineering the break. A saw blade was found in his possession. The blade, officers said, had been hidden in a tinny pocket in the collar of Martin's wind-breaker, and he had sawed through the bars on the roof of his cell to get out.

SMASHED DOOR

WILL BE CHARGED

Martin will be charged with aid

Melling was held for attempted false pretences. It was alleged he had attempted to obtain a car by means of a worthless cheque. He was also held for alleged desertion from the army at Vancouver.

Delusion Shaken Off, British Are Happier Than A Year Back

BY EVELYN A. MONTAGUE
LONDON, Aug. 20.—British are happier than a year ago, according to the latest survey made by the British Opinion Poll. The survey shows that the British are now more optimistic about the future of the country than they were a year ago.

As time goes on, the confidence of the British people is being shaken off. The survey shows that the British are now more optimistic about the future of the country than they were a year ago.

REALIZED AS LOST

André, through the war, has realized as lost. The survey shows that the British are now more optimistic about the future of the country than they were a year ago.

FOR the second time the Edmonton Stampeders, playing the Central Alberta Baseball League championship series with the Ponoka Stampeders, were able to come from behind to win the deciding game.

The fifth and deciding game will be played at Ponoka Sunday afternoon. The Stampeders refused to waive their rights to play at home, rights which they won by finishing the regular season at the top of the league standings.
